MEMORANDUM

TO: File

FROM: Father Chuck Lienert

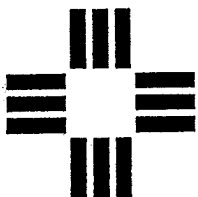

SUBJECT: Father Frank Duffy, SJ

DATE: October 30, 1989

Father Frank Case, SJ, spoke with me by telephone on October 30 about Father Frank Duffy, SJ. He informed me that Father Duffy has been under treatment for some sexual problems. Father Duffy is in his 70's and has responded well to treatment. He will be living at the Provincial House. He may, from time to time, say Mass for convents or in other restricted environments. He will not be given a regular assignment in ministry.

Father Case requested appropriate faculties for Father Duffy. I assured him that we would prepare them and send them out and thanked him for the background information.

ARCHDIOCESE
OF PORTLAND
IN OREGON

Office of the Archbishop

CONFESSIONAL FACULTIES
FOR RELIGIOUS PRIESTS AND EXTERN SECULAR PRIESTS
RESIDING IN THE ARCHDIOCESE

Reverend Frank Duffy, S.J.
Jesuit Provincial House
2222 N.W. Hoyt St.

For: Portland, Oregon 97210

1. After appropriate consultation with your Ordinary, we hereby grant you habitual faculties to hear confessions and celebrate the Sacrament of Penance.

As a resident priest of this Archdiocese, these faculties can be exercised anywhere in the world unless revoked or limited (Canon 967, 2 and Canon 974, 2 & 3).

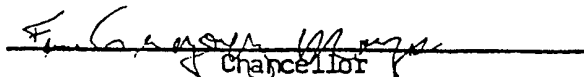

In accordance with Canon 975, this faculty ceases when you leave this Archdiocese permanently and thereby lose your Archdiocesan domicile.

2. All confessors of this Archdiocese are granted the faculty to remit in the internal or external forum a latae sententiae penalty established by the law but not yet declared, provided the remission is not reserved to the Apostolic See. This faculty may be exercised by the confessor only within the confines of this Archdiocese and on behalf of any person regardless of the person's residence or the place where the penalty was incurred.

3. The faculty is also granted to confessors in this Archdiocese to dispense from irregularities for the exercise of orders already received, provided their dispensation is not reserved to the Apostolic See. This faculty can be exercised in the internal or external forum within the confines of the Archdiocese and on behalf of any cleric regardless of his residence or the place where the irregularity was incurred.

Most Reverend William J. Levada
Archbishop of Portland

Chancellor

Given at the Chancery Office
Archdiocese of Portland in Oregon

October 31, 1989

Date

Some Canons referred to in Archdiocesan faculties.

Canon 967, 2 -- Those who enjoy the faculty of hearing confessions habitually, whether in virtue of office or by grant from the Ordinary of the place of incardination or the place in which they have a domicile, can exercise the same faculty everywhere unless the local Ordinary denies it in a particular case, with due regard for the prescriptions of Canon 974, 2 & 3.

Canon 974, 2 -- When the faculty to hear confessions is revoked by the local Ordinary who granted it as mentioned in Canon 967, 2, the presbyter loses that faculty everywhere. When this faculty is revoked by another local Ordinary, the presbyter loses it only in the territory of the revoking Ordinary.

3 -- Any local Ordinary who has revoked a presbyter's faculty to hear confessions is to inform the latter's own Ordinary by reason of incardination, or his competent superior in the case of a member of a religious institute.

Latae sententiae penalties not reserved to the Apostolic See include, but are not limited to the following:

Excommunication

Abortion (Canon 1398).

Apostasy, heresy, or schism (Canon 1364).

Liturgical interdict

Violence against the bishop (Canon 1370, 2).

Simulation of the Eucharist or the Sacrament of Penance (Canon 1378, 2).

False denunciation of a confessor (Canon 1390).

A religious in perpetual vows attempting civil marriage (Canon 1394, 2).

Suspension

A cleric attempting civil marriage (Canon 1399, 1).

Clerics who also have committed offenses punished by the above liturgical interdicts.

The following irregularities are not reserved to the Apostolic See (unless the fact upon which they are based has been brought to the judicial forum):

1. The irregularity incurred by one who while bound to an irregularity for the reception of orders unlawfully received orders.
2. The irregularity incurred by one who publicly committed the offense of apostasy, heresy, or schism.
3. The irregularity incurred by one who has attempted a marriage, even civil (provided the fact is not public), either while himself prevented from marrying because of an existing marriage bond or sacred orders or a public and perpetual vow of chastity, or with a woman prevented from marrying because of an existing marriage bond or a public and perpetual vow of chastity.
4. The irregularity incurred by one who has gravely and maliciously mutilated himself or another or who has attempted suicide.
5. The irregularity incurred by one who has carried out an act or an order reserved to those in the presbyterate or episcopate, either by himself not being in that order or while being prevented from its exercise by a declared or imposed penalty.

Dear Fr. Moys,

I am to obtain faculties of the Archdiocese for a Jesuit who has recently moved to Portland.

Francis E. Duffy, S.J., is now in residence at the Provincial's House. He was born on November 9, 1911, entered the Jesuits on July 16, 1930, and was ordained on June 12, 1943. In general, Fr. Duffy will be caring for his health while he is in Portland.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter. May God's blessings be with you and the archdiocese.

In Christ,

Michael Tyrrell, S.J.

Father John McBride, SJ. Named Pastor at Woodburn

Appointment of Father John McBride, SJ., as pastor of St. Luke Parish, Woodburn, has been announced by Archbishop Dwyer and Father John Kelley, provincial of the Oregon Province of Jesuits.

Father McBride has been director of Loyola Retreat House.

Father Frank Duffy, SJ. who has been pastor of St. Luke, will remain in the parish as associate pastor, working especially with migrant workers. Father Gordon Keys, SJ., also is an associate pastor.

A graduate of Gonzaga University, Father McBride served as an infantry sergeant during World War II and as an infantry officer in the Korean War. He entered the Jesuit order in 1952 and was ordained in 1961.

Before coming to the Portland area, Father McBride was pastor of Immaculate Conception Parish in Fairbanks, Alaska.

(Note: normally, if he were appointed to one of his own religious houses, like the Jesuits, they should have their own information; but inasmuch as a religious is appointed to a diocesan parish which normally is staffed by diocesan priests, we should keep track of it)

ELABORATION OF ABOVE

A pastor and two associate pastors for St. Luke Parish in Woodburn have been appointed by the provincial superior of the Society of Jesus, with the approval of Archbishop Dwyer.

Pastor is Father Christopher McDonnell, SJ. Associate pastors are Fr. Frank Duffy, SJ, and Fr. Henry Schultheis, SJ.

Father McDonnell has been a teacher at Brophy College Preparatory School in Phoenix, Ariz., for the past year. For many years he was headmaster at Seattle Preparatory School in Seattle, Wash., and at one time taught at Jesuit High School in Portland.

Fr. Duffy has been a faculty member at Jesuit High School, Portland.

Father Schultheis was provincial of the Oregon Province of Jesuits from 19 to 1959. After that he was an associate pastor at St. Joseph parish in Yakima, Wash., then treasurer of the Oregon Province of Jesuits. In the past few months he has been at Bellarmine High School in Tacoma, Wash., while he was convalescing from illness.

The Woodburn parish has been placed in the care of the Jesuits of the Oregon Province. They are planning special emphasis on serving Spanish-speaking people in the area.
